-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-4 and 6-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bolton.

The Bolton reference discloses an applicator (Figure 13) comprising a first cylindrical compartment (transorb within wall 18), a second insertable, exchangeable, annular compartment (transorb between wall 1 and wall 18) having a stop (portion which interacts with the step in wall 18, see Figure 13), and liquid permeable inserts 8 and 48 at product dispensing openings in the compartments and forming a product dispensing spot and which is further capable of dispensing and applying dye composition and oxidizing agent as claimed. Regarding claims 2, 3, 7, and 9, see paragraph 45, line 2 and paragraph 49, line 10.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bolton.

The Bolton reference discloses an applicator as discussed supra, but remains silent at the length the inserts protrude beyond the product dispensing openings. However, it would have been obvious for the inserts to protrude beyond the product dispensing openings by about 1 to 10 mm, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 2336.

Claims 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bolton in view of Hashimoto.

The Bolton reference discloses an applicator as discussed supra, but does not disclose foil for covering the dispensing openings. However, the Hashimoto reference discloses the use of foil to cover dispensing openings in similar openings to prevent the product from drying out (see Hashimoto col. 1, lines 28-30). It would have been obvious to employ foil to cover the dispensing openings of the Bolton applicator in view of Hashimoto to prevent the product from drying out.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The Paulish reference discloses a similar applicator.
